A DREAM OF SUMMER

Bland as the morning breath of June
The southwest breezes play;
And, through its haze, the winter noon
The snow-plumed Angel of the North
Has dropped his icy spear;
Again the mossy earth looks forth,
Again the streams gush clear.

The fox his hillside cell forsakes,
The muskrat leaves his nook,
The bluebird in the meadow brakes
Is singing with the brook.
"Bear up, O Mother Nature!" cry
Bird, breeze, and streamlet free;
"Our winter voices prophesy
Of summer days to thee!"

So, in those winters of the soul,
By bitter blasts and drear
O'erswept from Memory's frozen pole,
Will sunny days appear.
Reviving Hope and Faith, they show
The soul its living powers,
And how beneath the winter's snow
Lie germs of summer flowers!

The Night is mother of the Day,
The Winter of the Spring,
And ever upon old Decay
The greenest mosses cling.
Behind the cloud the starlight lurks,
Through showers the sunbeams fall;
For God, who loveth all His works,
Has left His hope with all!

— Whittier

We began the year in the crisp bright fall . . .

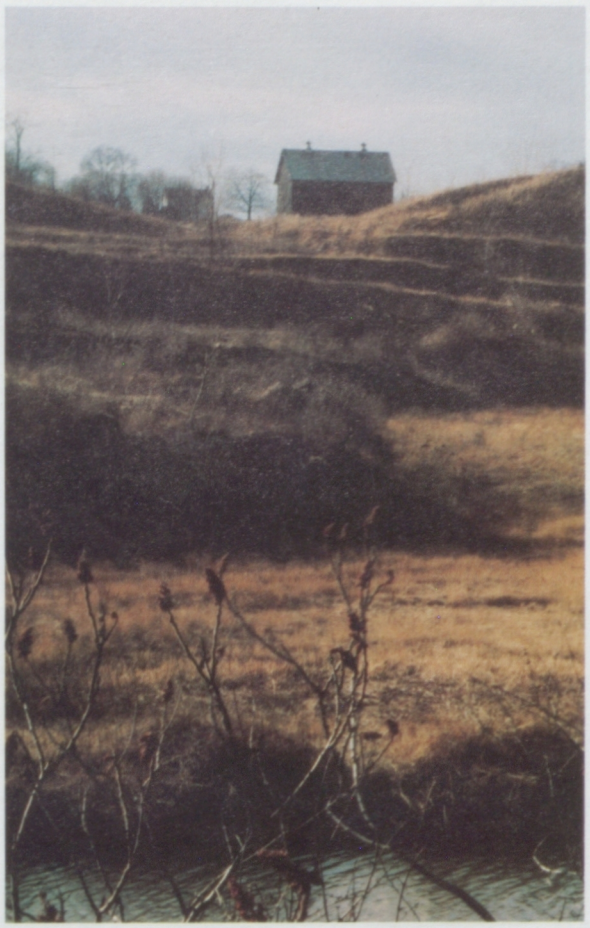

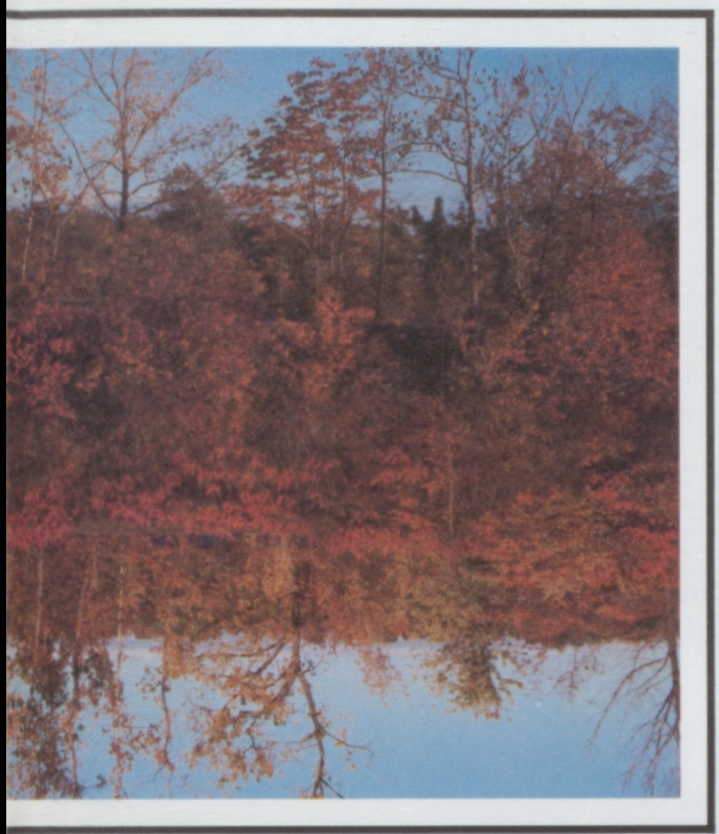

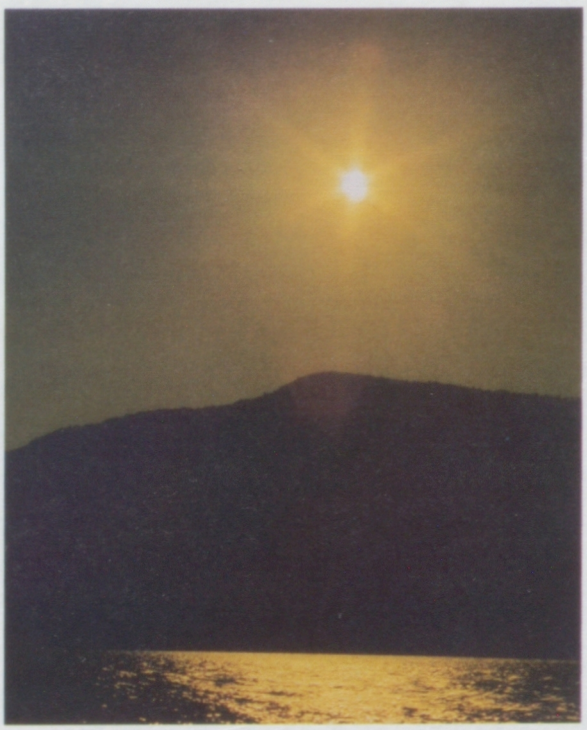

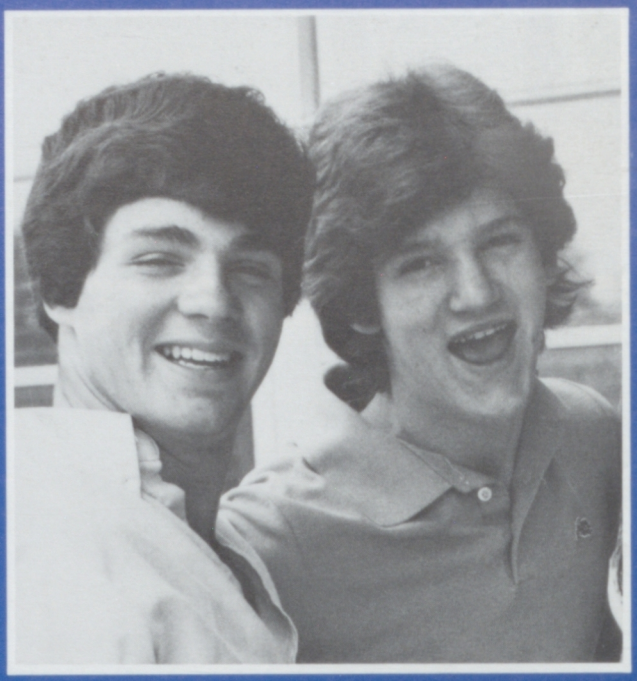

With the turning leaves creating a majestic panorama outside our window.

Yet as quickly as the leaves tenderly released their grasp of the branches . . .

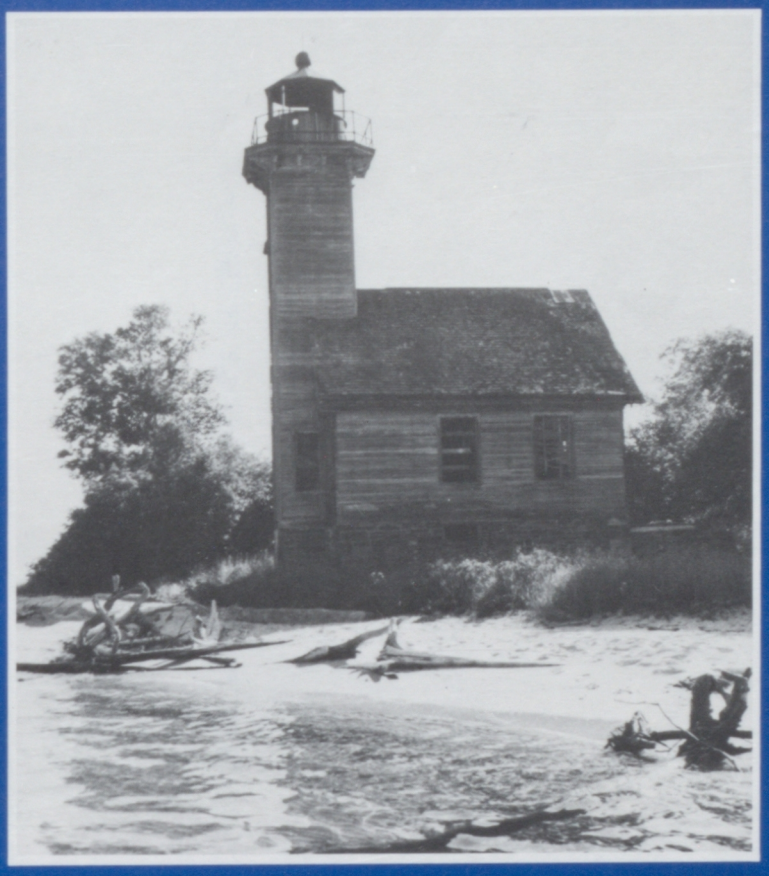

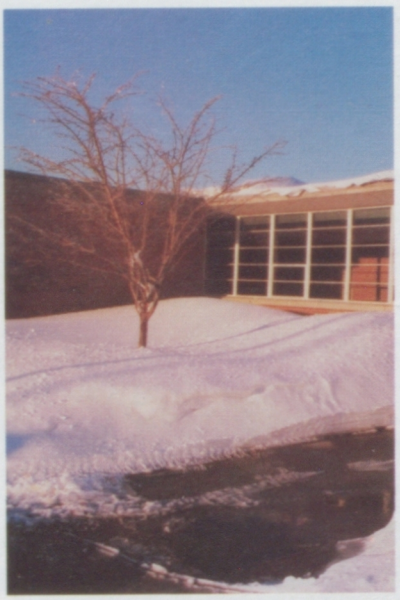

. . . Our uncertainty vanished.

Winter brought crystalline days and arctic nights . . .

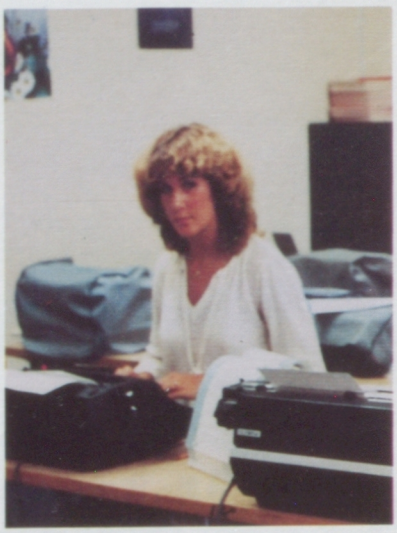

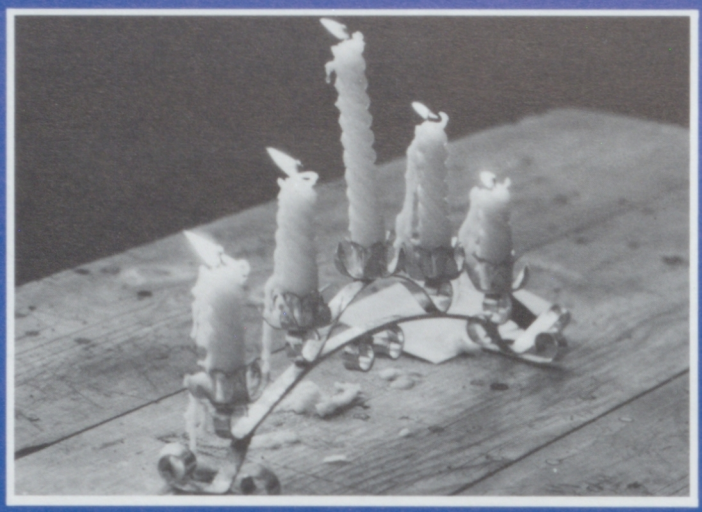

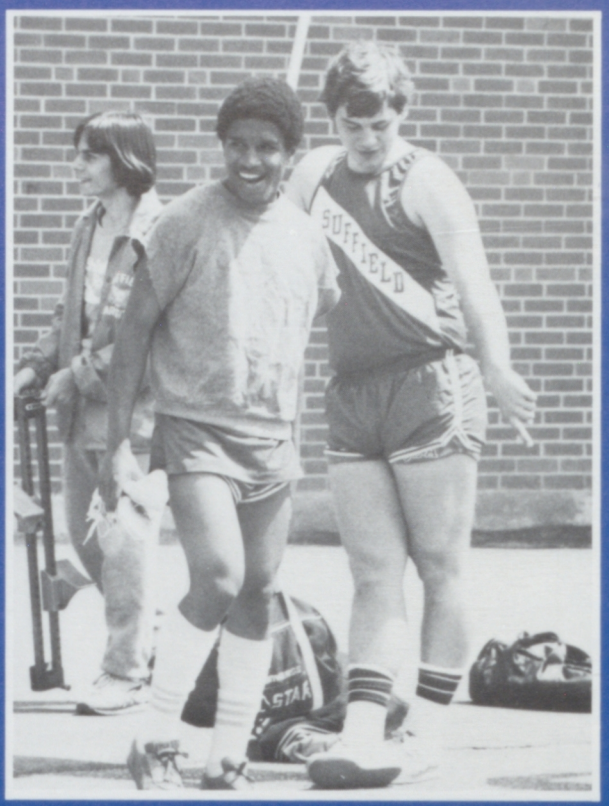

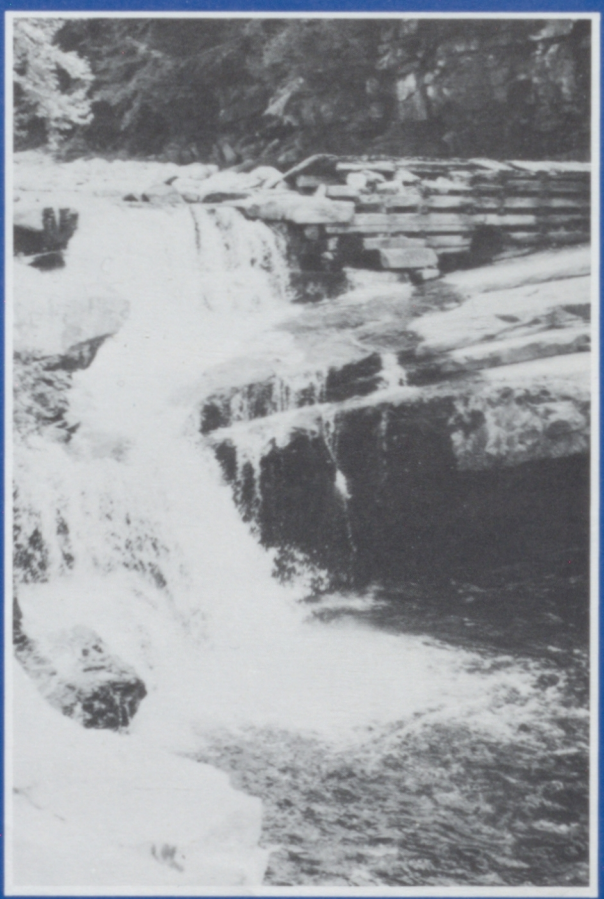

Yet our hearts were warmed with friendship.

DEDICATION

Throughout our four years at Suffield High School, the staff has shown the class of 1983 much kindness, support, and encouragement. Their consistent excellence, both in and out of the classroom, has instilled confidence within us and has given us the strength to pursue our goals with determination. Thus, it is with pride and gratitude that we dedicate the 1983 Sagitta to the entire faculty of Suffield High School.

APPRECIATION

The class of 1983 wishes to express its deepest appreciation to Mrs. Patricia Smith and Mr. Russell Baker, our advisors. Their untiring efforts on our behalf have augmented our success, both as a group and as individuals. We are grateful to have had two advisors so devoted to the senior class.

Class

Leaving the middle school, remembering food fights, assigned seating at lunch, and shouts of "Hell no, we won't go!," we marched into Suffield High School ready for action. However, we managed to funnel our energy into more constructive activities such as raising money to purchase our BLUE Suffield High jackets. Although we showed school spirit by cheering for our athletic teams, we placed fourth at the Pep Rally.

Sophomore year we turned the tables and finished first at the Pep Rally. Signs of maturity emerged as we passed our driver's tests. Frequent trips to McDONALD'S became the "in" thing as we grew confident of our driving skills. We also displayed our class rings with pride to anyone who cared enough to listen to our endless boasting. As spring approached, discussions of a class trip crept into our class meetings. Ocean Beach was the choice for our sun-starved sophomores. Once there, our advisers, Pat Smith and Russell Baker, went for a "surprising swim." We were no longer the inhibited freshmen who had entered S.H.S.

History

As our junior year approached, our responsibilities increased. The candy sale demanded shrewd business tactics to ensure a successful sale. The hard work paid off — we capitalized on one of the most high-yielding sales at Suffield High. We then presented a noteworthy booth at the Octoberfest. As goldfish swam in the tank, money flowed into our treasury. Then it was time to relax. We dined and danced to "SWEET DREAMS" at our Junior Prom. As the year came to a close, we eagerly looked forward to the long-awaited senior year.

As the buses pulled up to the doors of Suffield High, we dreamed we were leaving the parking lot in PORSCHES listening to PAT BENATAR and MEN AT WORK. However, in reality, our last year at S.H.S. was greeted with just as much enthusiasm as our past three. The magazine sale was a huge success, even though the senioritis epidemic had set in. Despite all the demerits, PIZZA, and water balloons, graduation crept closer. When June arrived, we left Suffield High School with all our lasting memories and echoes of "HOW YA HUSTLIN'?"

Class

On the night of June 12, in the year 2008, anchormen BERNIE DION, ANDY DAVIS, and ARTHUR COCKETT flashed this news bulletin:

"Earlier this evening, multimillionaire BRET LYNCH was abducted from the back seat of his Rolls Royce. Half an hour after the estimated time of the crime, Lynch's lawyer, JOHN CERVIONE, received a note demanding eighty-three million dollars in cash. The note added an ominous threat — if the money was not delivered at the 1983 class reunion of S.H.S., to be held at The Hotel California, a nuclear bomb would be detonated."

Much to the dismay of the authorities, the crowd had already gathered at the hotel, owned by STEPHANIE MELILLO, PAUL ANDREWS, and CINDY MILLER. Designer of "The California," DAWN LECUYER, and her assistants JAMIE KLASE and DAVID SISK conferred with landscaper MARK KUCHACHIK and carpenter JIM RUGGERIO about the possibility of the destruction of their work.

Fortunately, super sleuth CLIFFORD PAWELCIK had just arrived. He looked dashing in his trench coat designed by LAURIE VARHOLAK and JOANNE GARDOCKI, as he smoked his pipe filled with PAUL CHRISTIAN'S premium tobacco. Thanks to the valiant efforts of computer specialists DAVID BEDNAZ, ANDY MERRILL, CHRIS LATHROP, LARRY QUINN, KATHY STERLING, LYNN DRENZEK, and TOM FITCH, Cliff had already compiled the following list of suspects:

First on the list was DeWAYNE BUSKEY, a nuclear physicist renowned for his proficiency in bomb building. Or could the kidnapper be one of Lynch's many jilted lovers — among them model DONNA ROY, devoted secretary SUSAN BERESFORD, stock-broker MARY-JO CRANMORE, or his private stewardess SANDY KELLY? Of course, the motive was probably business, not pleasure. Lynch had many fierce adversaries in the world of commerce: millionaires DEBBIE LOWNDS, DANI SMALL, CHELEN EDWARDS, and JEFF BRACKETT, business executives HOLLY BUTCHYK, RUSSELL FRICKE, KARLA LEROUX, MELANIE PORTER, KATE SEGER, or ROB PHILLIPS. Perhaps it was one of Lynch's maltreated private nurses — ELAINE CHRISTIAN, HELEN BIEU, LINDA BIGGERSTAFF, MARGARET COLTURI, CHRIS HAMBORG, COLLEEN MAHONEY, and CHRIS CALLAHAN — or his distinguished physicians LARRY LOPEZ and MARGIE BOSTROM. The list of suspects was endless; many people had good cause to hate the sinister millionaire.

As Clifford pondered these possibilities, he was interrupted by TERESA COGGINS, newly-elected President. She disclosed the distressing news of Lynch's abduction, and stated that further instructions had been received from the kidnapper; the ransom money must be placed under the largest palm tree behind the band, featuring DAVID DIXON as lead vocalist and ALAN LECLERC on guitar. Teresa insisted that no one was in any danger because the ransom would be delivered. Undaunted by the threat, the party-loving class of '83 carried on.

Super Sleuth Cliff wandered aimlessly around the room, picking up bits and pieces of conversation.

"What a great movie this would make!" commented director SUSAN KOLLS.

"It sure would!" said JEFF BOLLIGER, famous producer; Audiorecorder GENE BARBERI agreed, and BLAIN SIMPSON, author, volunteered to write the script. Cinematographer TOM LANATA excitedly mentioned the possibility of several great action shots.

"But the cost of making a movie out of this situation would be phenomenal," said accountant ALISA LONGO.

"Never mind the movie; it's really going to cost big money if this hotel blows!" muttered PHIL LENK, another accountant. His colleagues, RICK LINDAU, DONNA OPPENHEIMER, KIM MAHONEY, DARLENE MAIOLO, and SHARON MILLER nodded in agreement.

This comment put a damper on the conversation.

"You know," said lawyer VERENA HOENE, "One hundred and fifty-four people are in grave danger."

"One hundred and fifty-three!" exclaimed LAURIE MARTIN, international business executive. "Bret has been kidnapped."

"One hundred and fifty-two," said lawyer LISA GOOCH. "Someone in this room is the kidnapper."

Prophecy

Meanwhile, economist DEBBIE WILD delegated law enforcement officer TOM DESHARNAIS and naval officer SUE SPULICK to keep the designated palm tree under close surveillance. Observing the peculiar behavior of the two tree watchers, psychologists KATHY DORN, KIM WASHBURN, PATTY BOUT and DEBBIE BUTLER wondered if they should direct their efforts toward helping two so obviously deranged members of their class.

On the other side of the room a group of engineers, BILL CASWELL, JIM DANISE, BOBBY HEYSE, CHRIS LAFOND, and DAVID SCHULTE, excitedly discussed the probable force of the possible nuclear explosion with physicist JEFF OSOWIECKI.

"You have nothing to worry about," exclaimed fashion merchandiser LYNDA GOODWIN. KELLY HUTCHINSON, another merchandiser, agreed, informing recreation specialist MISSY WENTWORTH that the bomb would not be detonated, as the ransom would be paid.

Just then prominent lawyer ANN GOLEC spoke to a group of people gathered before her. Secretaries CATHY KRISS, LAURIE PENLAND, and SARA SENTER listened interestedly.

"I don't understand how the kidnapper will be able to get the ransom money without being seen."

"After all," said biologist SCOTT FULLER," the palm tree is in full view. Auto technicians FRANK BAUCHIERO, STEVE MARKOWSKI, DAVID LADUKE, RUSTY COLSON, and JOE REGAN nodded in concurrence.

These words were interrupted as hockey pros RANDI DEMERS and TODD PHELPS wheeled in a giant cake.

"This was delivered to the door by two men wearing stocking masks!" they said. International business executive STEPHANIE WILLIAMS, standing near the cake, screamed, "It's ticking!"

SABRINA GILDERSLEEVE, a veterinarian, cried, "The bomb! It's the nuclear bomb!"

"But it can't be!" firmly stated pilot RICH DILKO.

"The ransom is going to be paid," observed lawyer JIM QUINN wisely. "But on the other hand, most cakes do not tick!"

After this brilliant observation, BOBBY BUTLER, a pharmacist, emphatically told everyone not to panic.

Fireman TONY BEAULIER, aided by business executives BILL NADEAU and MELANIE PORTER, and agricultural expert MISSY IVES, rushed up to see what he could do.

Electrical technician MARK BURTON shoved them out of the way. He then dove into the center of the cake, extracted the bomb, and proceeded to disarm it. Seconds later the deed was done. Liberally covered with frosting, Mark proudly announced that everyone was out of danger.

Much relieved, dentist SHERYL LONG joined remedial education specialist JOAN OLDEN and veterinarian WENDY SENTER on the dance floor.

Meanwhile, apparently oblivious to any hint of danger, elderly class advisors PAT SMITH and RUSSELL BAKER noisily raced up and down the corridor of the hotel in their electric wheelchairs, almost hitting wild-life manager GREG STAGG and physical therapist SUE MASON.

KRIS BINDER, educator of the deaf, attempted to get Russ Baker's attention by using sign language. As Mr. Baker attempted to acknowledge Kris, there was a sudden blackout. People were screaming and shuffling around in the darkness. "What's going on?" "Someone get the lights!" Just then, the lights came back on.

"The money!" shouted SUE MILLER. "It's gone!" The crowd gathered around the palm tree and confirmed the observation.

"Who took it?" asked LISA GRAFF. Just then an unfamiliar voice rang out, "I know who the kidnapper is!"

A roar of surprise filled the room, and Mrs. Smith was heard above the crowd saying, "Who did it? Who took the money? . . ."

But no one could answer her question. It seems that the mystery is destined to remain forever unsolved.

GENE BARBERI leaves all the good times to Suffield, and his love to Lisa. Good luck, Andy.

FRANK BAUCHIERO leaves school grounds legally for once, Millie Christian to find her own way to the doctor's, and Elaine all the memories that they had together, with the hope of many more.

SUE BERESFORD leaves with J.C., M.J.C., S.W., M.L., B.N., and all the great times, and Teresa C. typing "I love my mommie" with her kitty.

ANTHONY BEAULIER leaves his car to Mr. Sullivan, and all the good times in school to Peter.

HELEN BIEU leaves the underclassmen this: keep your grades high to get into a college some day.

KRIS BINDER leaves Susan a can of gasoline for those spontaneous trips to Ratley Road, Irene Beresford to play on the rests, wishing Rose all the happiness she gave to me, and memories of Rose, Bobby, Sue, Billy, Debbie, Chelen, Lisa, and Bret.

JEFF BOLLIGER leaves Mr. Aniello with two broken fingers, T.L.A.B. with eight free plays at Video World, and wishes good luck to Scott and Nicole.

MARK BURTON leaves the "drop return" to Johnny, a dime for a phone call to P.D., and "the walk" to whoever can master it.

DEBBIE BUTLER leaves Mr. K. dreaming of Princess Caroline and the "Cadbury Girl," special memories to a certain "Blonde" cheerleader, although he's no longer here, and with each backward glance a special memory to everyone she encountered in her move from the "Rockies."

CATHY CADORET leaves S.H.S. remembering all of the fun times with Mel and Spud and hoping Spud gets all the haircuts she needs.

CHRISTINE CALLAHAN leaves with Loreen to Bruno's, Tommy and Jeff with hopes that they will stay out of trouble, and Joanne, Laurie, and Sheryl, knowing that if they're not in Suffield, they must be in Agawam.

JOHN CERVIONE leaves as the last of the "Cervs," P.S. and R.B. the privacy of the lab office, and John, Deb, and Jeb to Deb C.

ELAINE CHRISTIAN leaves Millie a closet full of clothes, thanks to all her friends for the good times, and all her love to Frank.

PAUL CHRISTIAN leaves all his partying to the juniors, his good study habits to "J," and his 22-foot parking spot to anybody who has a car long enough to fill it.

ROSE CICERO leaves loving memories to Bobby, a hug of thanks to Kris, a smile and a song to Shellie, yet another long talk to Debbie, a slap in the face to Bernie, and all the good times to Bobby, Kris, Debbie, Chelen, Billy, John, Shellie, Sue, Bret, and Lisa.

TERESA COGGINS leaves L.V. and J.G. a dummy sheet, S.B. and J.C. at Katie's, M.J. to look for her ACH form, S.W. at McDonald's, M.L. on the balance beam, A.G., M.I., and D.L. screaming in the back of Ann's car, and S.K., S.M., and K.B. at Figaro's.

KARL COLSON leaves rides to his sister, Robin, and good times to his cousins.

MARY JO CRANMORE leaves Battista, Mel, Stroke, Nance, San, Burpie (and Joan Jett) the memories of the great 81-82 soccer season with the "Breakfast of Champions," and also David (H.P.) an REO album, strawberries, and a special place in her heart whether he's here or not to share it.

RANDI DEMERS leaves Suffield High with a lot of good times, and good luck to Ku, Willie, Bonehead, and Bo.

BERNIE DION leaves Mr. P. a tape of Willie Nelson's greatest hits and all his new words for old songs.

KATHY DORN leaves an eternal supply of warm fuzzies to "K," and J. Gowdy and carries with her fantastic memories of love and friendship with Scott and Marla.

DAVID DIXON leaves S.H.S. to face future Punks and Mods.

CHELEN EDWARDS leaves a locker full of gum wrappers, a vanilla milkshake and a bowl of chili to the gang, a case of correction paper to Debbie and Bill, and a trip to McDonald's and a pizza to Lisa.

TOM FITCH leaves all of his traffic tickets to some deserving freshman.

LAURIE FORD leaves, knowing that Mr. C. doesn't have to read any more of her excuses to leave school, and to Miss Schramm, Russell Fricke, and Rick Lindau the memories of the squirrel that was in her room.

RUSSELL FRICKE leaves Mr. Gregor one more awesome golfer and Laurie Ford to learn how to make "squirrel" noises.

JOANNE GARDOCKI leaves L.E. for Ed., S.L. "the Buck," and L.V. all the summers yet to come.

SABRINA GILDERSLEEVE leaves S.H.S. anxious, but prepared, special thoughts to Steph, who made her senior year not so bad, much happiness to Laurie Ford, many thanks to Mr. Fuller, and a big hug to Mr. Gregor, who made her "down" days feel up, and to Julie Dowd: one more year — don't wish it away.

ANN GOLEC leaves, being of sound mind and body, a bottle of barbecue sauce to Pigwoman, a cake to Missy and Dawn, the Uglies to Eddie, a reunion of the B.B.B.W.A. to Teri and Missy, and thanks.

LISA GOOCH leaves Krissy without a math book, a piece of gum to Chelen, Paris to Laurie, Eileen to Denny, Friendly's to Susan, quieter classes to Mr. Duni, and the mountain to the wolves and any members of the gang brave enough to go up there.

LYNDA GOODWIN leaves D.L. a case of Delmonte Fruit Cups, Byron to put up with no more P.D.A., A.G. some spare oranges, and Pigwoman to the Farm Show.

ROBERT HEYSE leaves Rose Cicero inundated with love, Mr. G. with a copy of Pinocchio, Mrs. Zak a bag of Reese's Pieces and all his friends with memories of good times.

MISSY IVES leaves P.W. in a sty, E.T. insubordinating, J and L with jailbait, Kate in space, K. and D. with Eileen, A. in the typing room, and T. with Ray.

SANDY KELLY leaves the demerits she never got to Ed, her used pencils to Krissy, all her advice to Kathy, and her old jeans and pearl necklace to her stepsister, Dani.

SUE KOLLS leaves Angela complaining, Mr. Duni talking to Lisa Gooch, Larry all the optimism he needs, G. to find someone else to call him Dad, and P. someone else to clean up after him, Rob someday sitting at a President's desk, wearing a dirty T-shirt, and Kris "with her eyes on." Special thanks to all.

MARK KUCHACHIK leaves Beth Glime with all the good memories and more to come.

CHRIS LAFOND leaves E.T. to future Co-op students.

CHRIS LATHROP leaves his diskettes to H.A.C.O., to Parthropski Enterprises his personal diskettes, to Audrey a blue cow, a copy of the key to John, and F.Y.A. to you know who.

ALAN LECLERC leaves his space as a senior for another soul. He left this behind for the underclassmen: keep your head high and go for it!

Will

DAWN LECUYER leaves lots of luck and love to Renee, a "creepy" whiplash to Ann and Missy, DEL driving lessons to T.C., a dump truck to D.A.L., "da wittle dawg to wobin," and pigwoman on a serving platter with an apple in her teeth.

PHIL LENK leaves to little "Mo" all the good times on "all-dayers," to carry on the tradition. He also leaves his parking space to Jennifer, if her mother will ever let her drive. Good luck in the future, Class of 1983.

KARLA LEROUX leaves S.H.S. and is glad to be gone.

RICK LINDAU leaves the library staff (Mrs. Green, in particular) the fond memories of great times in the library, and his awesome ability in racquetball to Mr. Fuller and Mr. G., who certainly could use it.

SHERYL LONG leaves Laurie and Joanne with all the good times that they have shared. She leaves Kim all the laughs with Catherine, and wishes her brother good luck in his H.S. years to come.

LARRY LOPEZ leaves Roger, Cheryl, and Angela another year with Mrs. Williams, Benny and those long rides to Suffield. Good luck to Eddie "mete mane con C.D. en el "84." Thanks to "P" for his smelly cigars, Joe for those painful, but helpful workouts, and Sue for those wonderful memories. Love always. He also leaves the memory of MUSIC MAN and HOW YOU HUSTLIN!

DEBBIE LOWNDS leaves M.W. watching her crawl to her house October Fest weekend, D.S. and her locker door handles, S.W. a shrinking machine, and the best of luck to Kim, Kathy, and the #1 soccer team.

BRET LYNCH leaves "Smokin' Joe" to "run away and hide" and the 5000 to anyone who wants it.

COLLEEN MAHONEY leaves a lot of great times like the Great Wall with Laurie and Lisa, going to the "Bridges" with Margie, the responsibility of giving her at least two grandchildren to Bobby and Cindy, and the best of luck to Michelle, Deirdre, Brian, and Matt.

LAURIE MARTIN leaves Debbie Linke sitting in the dirt drawing pictures, and thanks to Melanie, Sue and Cathy for all the D period breakfasts.

STEVE MARKOWSKI leaves his space in mechanics to someone who is as good as he is. Don't let the books or parts scare you. Don't look up all the time because you might hit your head, and always keep your hand on that snap-on tool wrench.

SUE MASON leaves Mr. D. fond memories of the Three Musketeers, Mr. K. all the great times in Psych, M.W. singing "Blue Moon," and "See Ma — I did it!"

STEPHANIE MELILLO leaves her brother, Chris, with lots of love and fun as he finishes up the Melillos, Mr. Gregor a thrilling chill, and Stu Fuller (Daddy #2) all the guilt for not assisting her in becoming his daughter-in-law. She also leaves knowing that she won't have to hear Sabrina say, "I don't want to be here."

CINDY MILLER leaves Jillybean and the gang to carry on all the good times, Mr. C. the memories of the Three Musketeers, and Debbie Linke a warm glow.

BILL NADEAU leaves the Student Council with a handful of grease, the cafeteria with decent hamburgers, and the memories of all his friendships.

JOAN OLDEN leaves Mr. C. just one more Olden, and leaves her little sister her love, and best wishes to Carol Z., Lisa S. from Vo-Ag, and all her other friends. She leaves Mary Ann Liss her love and best wishes.

JEFF OSOWIECKI leaves Jay with the "Ozzo" legacy, A.P. with no one to argue with in S.L., B.E. and B.B. to keep the wright team going.

LAURIE PENLAND leaves with Sara, Tina, Heather, and Kim and all their good memories. She leaves Brian three more best years of his life.

ROBERT PHILLIPS leaves many thanks to Mr. Duni, Miss Schramm, Mr. Pacocha, and Mrs. Green for making his high school years ones he will cherish.

JIM QUINN leaves the Hornet to Kathleen, and Spruce Street to A&R.

DONNA ROY leaves Linda, Jill, Lisa, and the rest of the gang many more trips to McDonald's, Mr. C. lots of thanks for Christmas Vacation of '81, and thanks to Todd and Billy for breakfast.

DAVID SCHULTE leaves A-9 to his successors in the hopes that they find equal enjoyment working in the "SPLAT ROOM," and to Mr. P. and Mrs. Robinson a great big thank you for all their help and faith in him.

KATE SEGER leaves her shy smile and love to Mr. Pacocha and Peter P., and leaves Larry a "How you skedaddlin'."

SARA SENTER leaves her cousins Jamie, Amy, and Alyssia her good times and good stories, and wishes them many happy years here.

COLLEEN SHERIDAN leaves all her good times to the Sheridans to come and hopes everyone in the class sticks together. Good luck to Brian, Danny, Andy, Amanda, and Missy in their future school days.

DANI SMALL leaves "Hands Wrisley" by the goal posts, and Bo "Having a Party" at U. of H., and good luck to all the girls' soccer team and to Kathy Leahan.

SUSAN SPULICK leaves all the great memories of D period to Mel, Cathy, Laurie, and Kelly. Also, to Mel all her Florida trips, to Cathy a new car, and to Julie R. 66 palm trees.

TERI SULLIVAN leaves the teachers, Mr. C., and the class of 1987 DOUBLE TROUBLE.

LAURIE VARHOLAK leaves Eb all their summers together in the past and in the future, and L.S. Bruno's.

KIM WASHBURN leaves all her luck and fun times for her sister to carry on, many thanks to R.D., A.K., B.B., L.G., D.B., B.S., P.S., and the rest of the gang, and many thanks for all the good times to "Judy," "Kickaha," "K.," Gowdy, Ramone, Pierre, and Gary.

MISSY WENTWORTH leaves as the last of the Wentworths, and passes the standard in a very worn pair of Adidas to David Sullivan.

DEBBIE WILD leaves Beth with a new forward line, and knowing there will be no more RLMs.

STEPHANIE WILLIAMS leaves Monica L. with a life-long friendship, and also much happiness and success in whatever she does, and Mary Jo, Sue, Teresa, Loreen, Jo Anne, and Laurie all the good times they had over the years.

CINDY WILLS leaves all the visits to the guidance office, always remembering her favorites, and best of luck to Di and Sue through the next two years.

THE CO-OP CLASS leaves Mrs. Zak phoning E.T.

THE SAGITTA STAFF leaves Eileen in the file cabinet with Denny and Marc.

THE CLASS OF 1983 leaves knowing the truth about Mrs. Smith and Mr. Baker.

In Memory of
Brian Anthony Gardocki
April 14, 1965 — November 20, 1982

. . . whose dwelling is the light of setting suns,
And the round ocean and the living air,
And the blue sky, and in the minds of men.

Thy memory be as a dwelling place
For all sweet sounds and harmonies; oh! then, if solitude, or fear, or pain, or grief should be thy portion, with what healing thoughts of tender joy wilt thou remember me . . .

— William Wordsworth

"By the waters of Life we sat together,
Hand in hand, in the golden days
Of the beautiful early summer weather,
When skies were purple and breath was praise."

— Thomas Noel

Spring came reluctantly . . .

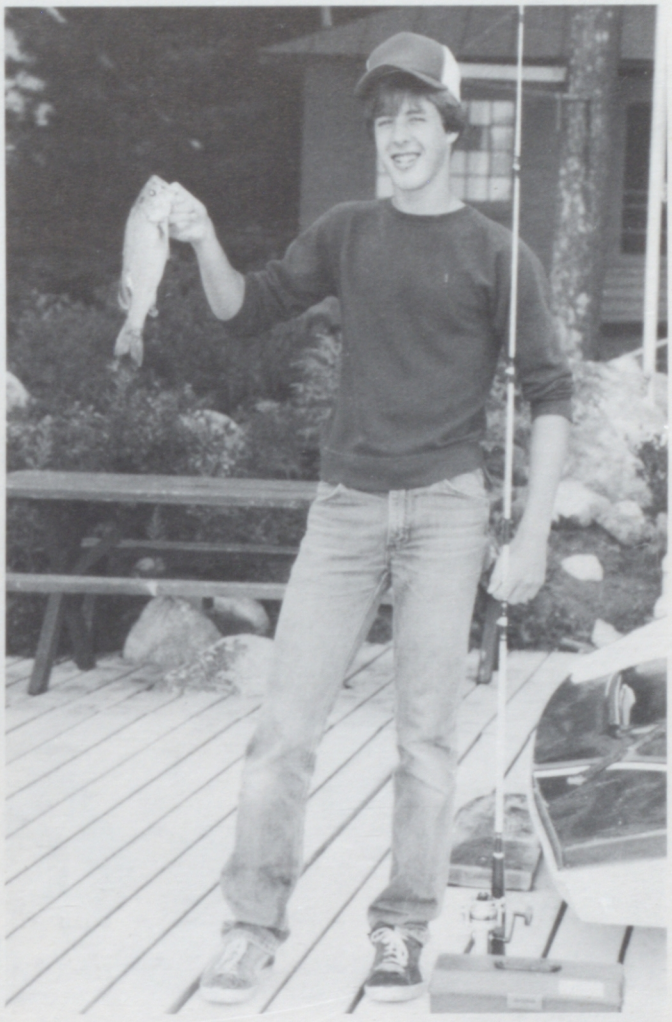

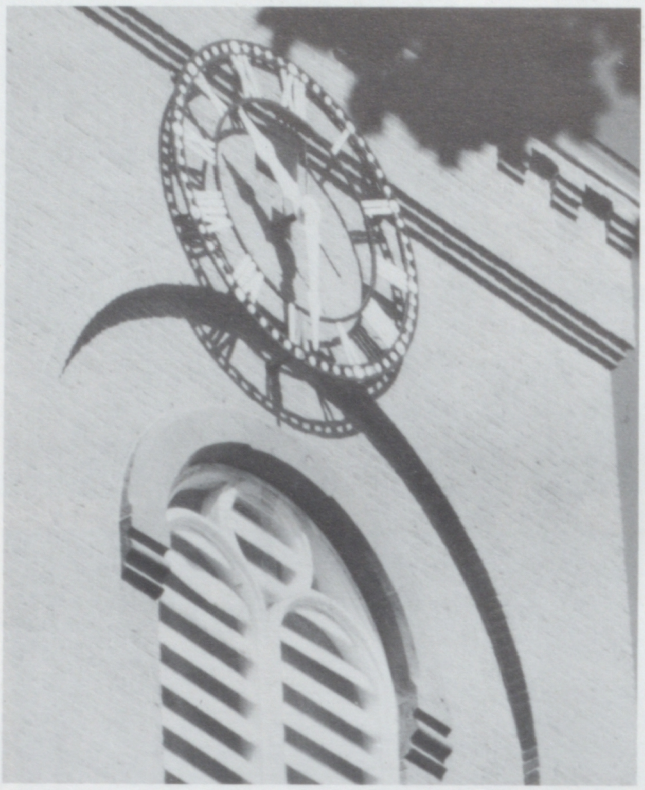

But with the sun and blossoming flowers, our spirits rose . . .

We knew we could not change the course of time . .

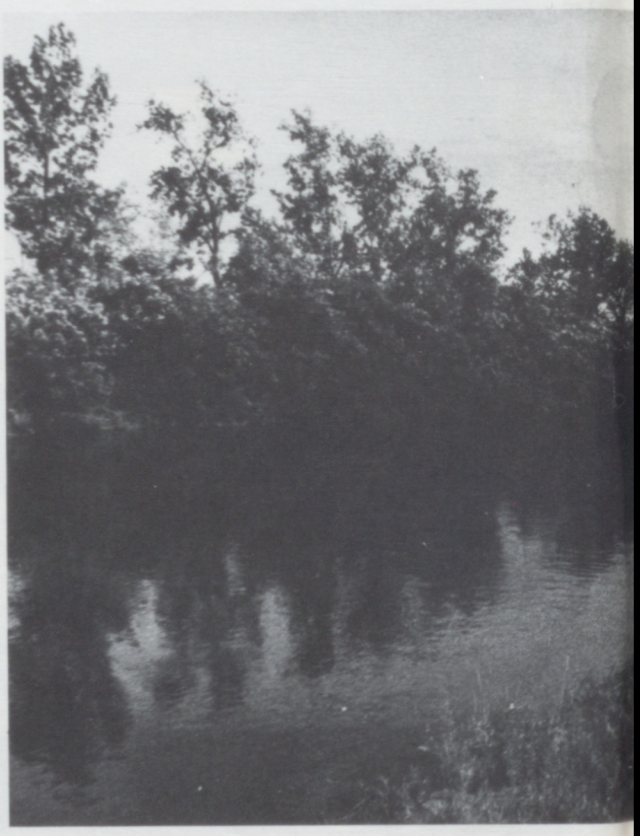

Summer, and with it graduation, would soon be upon us.

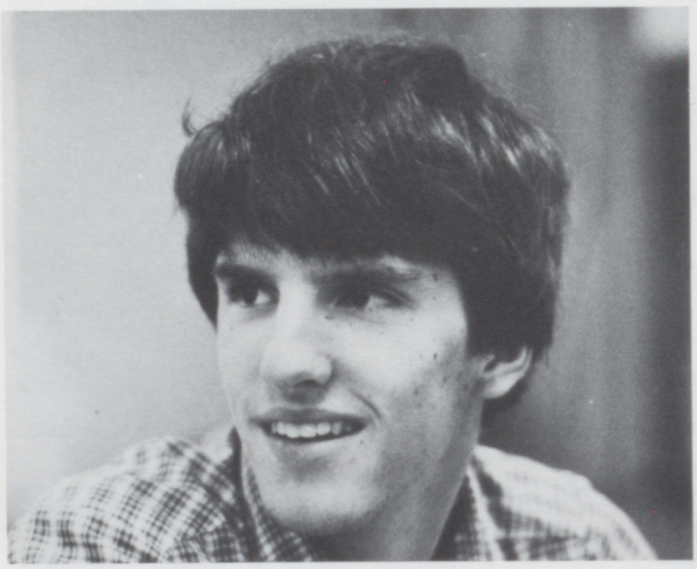

And yet we know that the bonds of our friendship will endure . . .
